- 11.2. The Requestor must complete the prescribed form enclosed herewith and submit same as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit (if applicable) to the Information Officer or the Deputy Information Officer at the postal or physical address, fax number or electronic mail address as noted above.
- 11.3. The prescribed form must be filled in with sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify:
 - 11.3.1. the record or records requested; and
 - 11.3.2. the identity of the Requestor.
- 11.4. The Requestor should indicate which form of access is required and specify a postal address or fax number of the Requestor in the Republic.
- 11.5. The Requestor must state that he/she requires the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right is so to be exercised or protected. The Requestor must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right (section 53(2)(d)).
- 11.6. The Company will process the request within 30 (thirty) days, unless the Requestor has stated special reasons to the satisfaction of the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods not be complied with.

- 11.7. The Requestor shall be advised whether access is granted or denied in writing. If, in addition, the Requestor requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, the Requestor will be obliged to state which manner and the particulars required.
- 11.8. If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the Requestor must submit proof of the capacity in which the Requestor is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer (section 53(2)(f)).
- 11.9. If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.
- 11.10. The Requestor must pay the prescribed fee before any further processing can take place.
- 11.11. All information as listed in clause 11 should be provided and failing which the process will be delayed until the required information is provided. The prescribed time periods will not commence until the Requestor has furnished all the necessary and required information. The Information Officer shall sever a record, if possible, and grant only access to that portion requested and which is not prohibited from being disclosed.

12. REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

- 12.1. Grounds to Refuse Access - A private body is entitled to refuse a request for information. The main grounds on which the Company may to refuse a request for information relates to the:
 - 12.1.1. mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person or a deceased person (section 63) or a juristic person, as included in the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural or juristic person;
 - 12.1.2. mandatory protection of personal information and for disclosure of any personal information to, in addition to any other legislative, regulatory or contractual agreements, comply with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013;
 - 12.1.3. mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party (section 64) if the record contains:
 - 12.1.3.1. trade secrets of the third party;

- 12.1.3.2. financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
 - 12.1.3.3. information disclosed in confidence by a third party to The Company, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - 12.1.3.4. mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties (section 65) if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
 - 12.1.3.5. mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property (section 66);
 - 12.1.3.6. mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings (section 67).
- 12.1.4. The commercial activities (section 68) of a private body, such as the Company, which may include:
- 12.1.4.1. trade secrets of the Company;
 - 12.1.4.2. financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the Company;
 - 12.1.4.3. information which, if disclosed could put the Company at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - 12.1.4.4. a computer program which is owned by the Company, and which is protected by copyright;
 - 12.1.4.5. the research information (section 69) of the Company or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of The Company, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.
- 12.1.5. Requests for information that are clearly unnecessary, or which involve an unreasonable misallocation of resources shall be refused.
- 12.1.6. All requests for information will be assessed on their own merits and in accordance with the applicable legal principles and legislation.

- 12.1.7. If a requested record cannot be found or if the record does not exist, the Information Officer shall, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, notify the Requestor that it is not possible to give access to the requested record. Such a notice will be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned for the purpose of PAIA. If the record should later be found, the Requestor shall be given access to the record in the manner stipulated by the Requestor in the prescribed form, unless the Information Officer refuses access to such record.

13. REMEDIES AVAILABLE WHEN THE COMPANY REFUSES A REQUEST

13.1. Internal Remedies :

If the Company does not have internal appeal procedures. The decision made by the Information Officer is then considered final. Requestors will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused, and the requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer.

13.2. External Remedies :

- 13.2.1. A requestor that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, may apply to a Court for relief;
- 13.2.2. a third party dissatisfied with the Information Officer's decision to grant a request for information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court for relief.

- 13.3. For purposes of PAIA, the courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status and a Magistrate's Court designated by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development, and which is presided over by a designated Magistrate.

14. ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY THE COMPANY

- 14.1. Records held by the Company may be accessed by requests only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.
- 14.2. A Requestor is any person making a request for access to a record of the Company. There are two types of Requestors:

- 14.2.1. Personal Requestor: A personal Requestor is a Requestor who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the Requestor. The Company will voluntarily provide the requested information or give access to any record with regard to the Requestor's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged.
- 14.2.2. Other Requestor: This Requestor (other than a personal Requestor) is entitled to request access to information on third parties.
- 14.3. In considering such a request, the Company will adhere to the provisions of PAIA. Section 71 requires that the Information Officer take all reasonable steps to inform a third party to whom the requested record relates of the request, informing him/her that he/she may make a written or oral representation to the Information Officer why the request should be refused or, where required, give written consent for the disclosure of the Information.
- 14.4. The Company is not obliged to voluntarily grant access to such records. The Requestor must fulfil the prerequisite requirements, in accordance with the requirements of PAIA and as stipulated in Chapter 5; Part 3, including the payment of a request and access fee.

15. PRESCRIBED FEES (SECTION 51 (1) (F)) OF PAIA

15.1. Fees provided by PAIA:

15.1.1. PAIA provides for two types of fees, namely:

15.1.1.1. A request fee, which is a form of administration fee to be paid by all Requestors except personal Requestors, before the request is considered and is not refundable; and 15.1.1.2. an access fee, which is paid by all Requestors in the event that a request for access is granted. This fee is inclusive of costs involved by the private body in obtaining and preparing a record for delivery to the Requestor.

15.1.2. When the request is received by the Information Officer, such officer shall by notice require the Requestor, other than a personal Requestor, to pay the prescribed request fee, before further processing of the request (section 54(1)).

15.1.3. If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the Requestor to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

15.1.4. The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the Requestor has paid the fees as indicated below.

15.1.5. A Requestor whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee that is calculated to include, where applicable, the request fee, the process fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including deciding to make it available in the request form.

15.1.6. If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the Requestor.

16. REPRODUCTION FEE

16.1. Where The Company has voluntarily provided the Minister with a list of categories of records that will automatically be made available to any person requesting access thereto, the only charge that may be levied for obtaining such records, will be a fee for reproduction of the record in question.

- 16.4. Deposits - Where the institution receives a request for access to information held on a person other than the Requestor himself/herself and the Information Officer upon receipt of the request is of the opinion that the preparation of the required record of disclosure will take more than 6 (six) hours, a deposit is payable by the Requestor. The amount of the deposit is equal to 1/3 (one third) of the amount of the applicable access fee.
- 16.5. Collection Fees - The initial "request fee" of R50,00 should be deposited into the bank account below and a copy of the deposit slip, application form and other correspondence / documents, forwarded to the Information Officer via fax. The officer will collect the initial "request fee" of applications received directly by the Information Officer via email. All fees are subject to change as allowed for in PAIA and as a consequence such escalations may not always be immediately available at the time of the request being made. Requestors shall be informed of any changes in the fees prior to making a payment.

17. DECISION

- 17.1. Time Allowed to Institution

- 17.1.1. The Company will, within 30 (thirty) days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect.
- 17.1.2. The 30 (thirty) day period within which the Company has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than (30) thirty days if the request is for a large number of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of The Company and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 (thirty) day period.
- 17.1.3. The Company will notify the Requestor in writing should an extension be sought.

18. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION THAT IS PROCESSED BY THE COMPANY

- 18.1. Chapter 3 of POPIA provides for the minimum conditions for lawful processing of Personal Information by a Responsible Party. These conditions may not be deviated from unless specific exclusions apply as outlined in POPIA.
- 18.2. The Company needs Personal Information relating to both individual and juristic persons in order to carry out its business and organizational functions. The way this information is processed and the purpose for which it is processed is determined by the Company.
- 18.3. The Company is accordingly a Responsible Party for the purposes of POPIA and will ensure that the Personal Information of a Data Subject:
 - 18.3.1. is processed lawfully, fairly and transparently. This includes the provision of appropriate information to Data Subjects when their data is collected by the Company, in the form of privacy or data collection notices. The Company must also have a legal basis (for example, consent) to process Personal Information;
 - 18.3.2. is processed only for the purposes for which it was collected; will not be processed for a secondary purpose unless that processing is compatible with the original purpose.is adequate, relevant and not excessive for the purposes for which it was collected;
 - 18.3.3. is accurate and kept up to date;
 - 18.3.4. will not be kept for longer than necessary;
 - 18.3.5. is processed in accordance with integrity and confidentiality principles; this includes physical and organisational measures to ensure that Personal Information, in both physical and electronic form, are subject to an appropriate level of security when stored, used and communicated by The Company, in order to protect against access and acquisition by unauthorised persons and accidental loss, destruction or damage; and 18.3.6. is processed in accordance with the rights of Data Subjects, where applicable.

18.4. Data Subjects have the right to:

18.4.1. be notified that their Personal Information is being collected by the Company. The data subject also has the right to be notified in the event of a data breach;

18.4.2. know whether the Company holds Personal Information about them, and to access that information. Any request for information must be handled in accordance with the provisions of this Manual;

18.4.3. request the correction or deletion of inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or unlawfully obtained personal information;

18.4.4. object to The Company's use of their personal information and request the deletion of such personal information (deletion would be subject to The Company's record keeping requirements);

18.4.5. object to the processing of personal information for purposes of direct marketing by means of unsolicited electronic communications; and

18.4.6. complain to the Information Regulator regarding an alleged infringement of any of the rights protected under POPI and to institute civil proceedings regarding the alleged non-compliance with the protection of his, her or its personal information.

18.5. Purpose of the Processing of Personal Information by the Company

18.5.1. As outlined above, Personal Information may only be processed for a specific purpose. The purposes for which the Company processes or will process Personal Information is set out the privacy profile table in Appendix 2 .

18.6. Categories of Data Subjects and Personal Information/special Personal Information relating thereto

18.6.1. As per section 1 of POPIA, a Data Subject may either be a natural or a juristic person. Appendix 1 set out the various categories of Data Subjects that the Company processes

Personal Information on and the types of Personal Information relating thereto.

18.7. Recipients of Personal Information

- 18.7.1. Part 3 of Appendix 2 outlines the recipients to whom the Company may provide a Data Subject's Personal Information to.

18.8. Cross-border flows of Personal Information

- 18.8.1. Section 72 of POPIA provides that Personal Information may only be transferred out of South Africa if the:

- 18.8.1.1. recipient country can offer such data an "adequate level" of protection. This means that its data privacy laws must be substantially similar to the conditions for Lawful Processing as contained in POPIA; or
- 18.8.1.2. the Data Subject consents to the transfer of their Personal Information; or
- 18.8.1.3. transfer is necessary for the performance of a contractual obligation between the Data Subject and the Responsible Party; or
- 18.8.1.4. transfer is necessary for the performance of a contractual obligation between the Responsible Party and a third party, in the interests of the Data Subject; or
- 18.8.1.5. the transfer is for the benefit of the Data Subject, and it is not reasonably practicable to obtain the consent of the Data Subject, and if it were, the Data Subject, would in all likelihood provide such consent.
